- ◇ Call or text a friend that is doing well in class
- ◇ Review the lesson I learned in class today
- ◇ Speak to your teacher
- ◇ Search a website to look for helpful tips

I'm having trouble getting along with my friend. What can I do?

- ◇ Let the friend know how I am feeling
- ◇ Speak to a trusted adult
- ◇ Make an appointment to see your school counselor

One of my friends seems to be feeling down lately. What can I do?

- ◇ Let my friend know I am there for them
- ◇ Encourage my friend to talk with their parent
- ◇ Inform my school counselor or another trusted adult at the school
- ◇ Use TALK application from your CLEVER account

middle school success

Here are a few tips to help you with middle school. Don't be afraid to ask your teachers, administrators, school counselors, or staff at your school if you need help.

- ◆ Get organized
- ◆ Do your homework
- ◆ Talk to your teachers
- ◆ Get involved in extra-curricular activities
- ◆ Aim for good grades
- ◆ Stay healthy
- ◆ Talk to your parents; let them know about your experience
- ◆ Find an adult you trust to talk to when you have any problems.
- ◆ Choose your friends wisely. Don't choose friends that make poor decisions.
- ◆ Come to school consistently, and have fun. You can't learn if you are not in school.

Middle School Grading
